- Researchers are invited to submit papers for the 2023 Silvaplana workshop.
- Papers are required to be in progress or not under journal submission. A replacement paper can be proposed for an accepted workshop paper that has been submitted for publication.
- Intending participants without a research travel budget can apply for a hotel subsidy.
- Papers presented are eligible for submission to the European Journal of Political Economy without a submission fee.
- There are no parallel sessions. Participation is requested in all sessions.
- Fitness for mountain walks is required.
- Companions and family are welcome. Babysitters will be provided for requests in advance.
- Participants are obliged to stay at the conference hotel. The hotel caters to vegetarian and fish preferences.
- There is a workshop fee of 100 Swiss Francs.
- For senior researchers, paper presentation is not necessary. The workshop fee applies.

Send papers to arye.hillman@biu.ac.il; Carsten.Hefeker@uni-siegen.de; P-Guillaume.Meon@ulb.be Before May 15, send title and abstract, and a preliminary paper if available, for decision. Before June 15, send more complete version. Before July 15, send paper for presentation. Early decisions can be provided for summer planning. For guidance, the 2022 program is attached.

After acceptance of a paper, registration is by booking at the hotel. To receive the conference rate (155 SF single, 276 SF double, including breakfast and dinner) do not book on-line. Call the reception or send an email to the hotel, pointing out your participation in the workshop.

The conference rate at the hotel applies before and after the days of the workshop.
